Village board deals with finances, floods, fights

The committee meeting of the Antioch Village Board held Monday, dealt with a variety of matters.

First on the agenda was the public hearing of the annual appropriation ordinance for the 1980-81 year.

Finance Chairman Don Amundsen read the figures for all the anticipated and possibly anticipated moneys to be used during the coming year, explaining that the quoted figures were purposely on the high side to allow for unforeseen expenditures.

Anticipated village expenditures included: general fund, $1,040,100; general liability fund, $80,000; police fund, $438,900; fire fund, $127,500; street fund, $181,700; road and bridge fund, $32,500; audit fund, $7,000; IMRT and Social Security fund, $95,000; Civil Defense fund, $3,900; Revenue Sharing fund, $151,300; Fire Safety Bond fund, $70,000; motor fuel tax fund, $218,012.50; enterprise fund, $534,400; sewer extension and improvement fund, $210,000; Revenue Bond and interest fund, $80,000.

The grand total for all funds was $3,486,441.70.

The next matter brought before the board was a complaint of dust and parking problems made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bauer, 167 Lakewood Dr., Oakwood Knolls.

The Bauers registered a complaint about the dust factor and the parking of too many cars in front of their house in the area of the boat docks in Oakwood Knoll.

They asked that the blockaded access-way, north on Lake Ave. to the park, be opened and graveled.

Objections were raised to the access opening by other area residents although they too complained about the dust.

After a discussion, the matter was turned over to the public works commission to look into the cost of seal-coating Lakewood Dr. to eliminate the dust.

Bauer did not seem to be satisfied with the board's recommendation and said that he would return to the board meeting next Monday with a petition on the matter.

At this point, three state and federal agency representatives appeared before the board and citizens in attendance with a preliminary flood insurance study for the village of Antioch.

Alan Birman from the Federal Emergency Management Agency explained the program, asking for input and corrections of the study that had been in the works for two years.

The study has a three year expected completion date.

Birman explained that the purpose of the study is to allow present and future development in the floodplains area to have flood insurance subsidized by the government.

At the present time those in the floodplains are paying a flat flood insurance rate of 25 cents per $100 of structural insurance and 25 cents per $10,000 of contents insurance.

Dana Snyder of the Soil Conservation Service, who did the study, gave a slide explanation presentation and French Wetmore, Illinois Dept. of Transportation explained that after the study was finished, additions and revisions would be made to the existing village ordinances on the development of the floodplains areas inside of the village boundaries to correspond with the finished study.

At this point subsidized flood insurance would be available to those in the floodplains area with the rates gauged according to the flood risk of each individual property.

Trustee Amundsen asked what would happen if the village decided against the entire floodplain insurance program.

Wetmore replied that if the village does not comply with the results of the study no one in the floodplains area will be able to purchase any kind of flood insurance.

He added that the village would be unable to get federal funding and that some banks probably would look twice before issuing mortgages on any property in the floodplains that was not insured.

Birman asked that people in the floodplains area look at the study and submit any corrections to him within the next 30 days. More information is available at the village hall.

Two representatives from Lakes Cable TV were there to give a presentation, but the lateness of the hour caused the board to set July 28 for the presentation after seeing the program in operation.

Retail group outlines plans for Maxwell St. Days sale

A combination Retail Committee and Retail Group luncheon meeting was held at The Way We Were Restaurant, on Friday, July 11.

The attendance of the meeting was extremely good, drawing a comment of, "This is the most people I've seen at one of these meetings in a long time," from Retail Group Chairman Laddie Korecek.

THE PREDOMINATE matter of discussion was the upcoming Maxwell St. Days promotion, the most important chamber sponsored event of the year.

Chairman Korecek again brought up the matter of merchants participating in this or any other Chamber of Commerce sponsored event when they are neither members of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry or members of the Retail Group of the chamber.

Korecek said that a letter had been sent to those merchants that are Chamber members but not Retail Group members, informing them that they would be billed $25 for participation in Maxwell St. Days and another $25 for participation in Moonlight Madness.

MEMBERS OF the Retail Group currently pay an annual $100 fee to defray the costs of advertising, etc., for the years' events.

Korecek suggested that another letter be delivered to those that belong to neither group, informing them that they must pay the Retail Groups' dues to participate in any of these events next year.

It was suggested that group members put some pressure on non-member merchants, that they are aware of, that are participating and reaping the profits paid for by those that have paid their dues.

KORECEK ALSO reiterated that retailers from the outer shopping areas on North Ave. and Rte. 173 would be invited to use space, not under use, in the downtown area at a fee of $25 per event.

Bill Patterson brought up the problems of complete outsiders moving wares onto Antioch's streets during Maxwell St. Days.

He said, "This event was originally for merchants to be able to sell their own left over goods, not to bring in goods that were either new or completely unrelated to their particular business."

William Schroeder, Antioch News and Lakeland Newspapers publisher, suggested that the group look into the passing of an ordinance against transient peddlers.

KORECEK FELT that the group might have a voice in the matter since the retail merchants generate 70 percent of the village's taxes.

Sandy Seigmeir said that it had been suggested by some merchants to extend Maxwell St. Days over Sunday.

It seemed to be the group consensus that three days of the sale was sufficient.

A discussion of the advertising promotion of Maxwell St. Days ensued, with the group deciding to use profits from the popcorn and beer wagons, at the Arts and Crafts Show, to add to the program.

It was decided to place banners on the backstop of the high school baseball field on Rte. 173, at the intersection of Rte. 83 and North Ave. and at Rte. 173 and Rte. 59.

The possibility of placing of banners across the streets of the business section was mentioned if allowed by the village.

Miss Illinois Pageant set for Aurora

The 1980 Miss Illinois Pageant will be at the Paramount Arts Centre in downtown Aurora, July 16-19.

Title of this year's pageant is 'Ready for the 80's'.

Sally Ann Mueller, who will represent the Lakes region, will compete with 36 other contestants from across the state, for the title of Miss Illinois and the opportunity to compete in the Miss America Pageant which will be nationally televised from Atlantic City in September.

July 16, 17 and 18 will be devoted to preliminary competitions for talent, swimsuit and evening gown.

The 1980 Miss Illinois will be selected and crowned after competing among finalists the night of July 19, which will be televised live on channel 9 (WGN-TV).

Recently, contestants gathered at the performing arts centre to rehearse the opening number in the show and their individual talent presentations.

JACK COLLINS, executive director for the Pageant, gave contestants a brief orientation talk and was assisted by Peter Daleiden, Miss Illinois Pageant system president, and Ken Radke, pageant producer.

MISTRESS of ceremonies for all four nights of competition will be Dorothy Benham, Miss America 1977.

Tickets for all four nights of competition are on sale now for $20. Single tickets are $3.50 for preliminary sessions and $10 for the final night of the pageant.

Tickets may be obtained by sending check payable to Miss Illinois Pageant, Box 40, Hinsdale, Illinois 60521.

Hospital sets new visitor rules

Starting July 16, Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan will initiate a new policy to regulate visitors.

Hours for general floors will remain the same, 11:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., but will be strictly enforced. Patients may have only two visitors at any one time.

A visitor must obtain a pass at the reception desk in the main lobby before proceeding to the medical/surgical floors, obstetrics, pediatrics or the intensive care units.

The bright orange pass will be marked with the patient's name and room number and must be returned to the reception desk before another visitor to that patient is admitted.

PRESIDENT DONALD WASSON said, "The Governing Board and Administrative Council of the hospital along with the medical staff discussed this policy at length before deciding to implement it in mid-July.

Our responsibility is first and foremost to the patient. A limited number of visitors can be part of therapy, but too many people and lengthy visits can be exhausting to a patient.

Many of them are too kind, they would never ask a friend to leave even if they are tired or in pain."

WASSON WENT ON to say there have been instances where individuals walked past the reception desk as much as an hour and a half before visiting hours begin.

"People who disregard the visiting hours only disrupt the routine of patient care," Wasson said.

"Morning hours are busy, often tests are scheduled, physicians are making their rounds, and in walks a visitor who isn't supposed to be there. This is the type of person who make it necessary for us to develop the new policy."

DR. M. SHARIFI, president of the medical staff at Victory Memorial said: "We wholeheartedly support administration in visitor control. The health of the patient is our primary concern."

The new restrictions also involve the coffee shop but not the gift shop or main lobby area. If visitors arrive before 11:30 a.m. they may wait in the lobby or browse in the gift shop.

Passes will not be issued prior to 11:30 a.m. except for special badges to immediate family for patients undergoing surgery, emergency cases, new fathers, and the special visiting hours in the intensive care units.

SO, STARTING July 16 every person in the hospital will have some type of visible identification; either a visitor pass or badge or employee I.D.

Anyone else roaming the building will be asked to leave the floor and obtain proper identification before returning.

Wasson said, "We sincerely hope that the hundreds of people who come to Victory Memorial each day will realize that the new policy is for the benefit of the very people they love and want so much to see."

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

It's nice seeing the Reckers and the Kirkpatricks back in town after their experience at playing Robinson Crusoe up in Canada last week.

It seems that the two couples were left stranded at Harold Gaston's cabin, on an island in Lake Sesiknaga, when the pilot that was supposed to pick them up last Thursday didn't show until Saturday.

They were left with no food but the fish they could catch when their refrigeration went as the propane fuel ran out.

"It wasn't too bad," says Pres.

But all ended well when the pilot discovered that their pick-up orders had been misfiled.

Happy Birthdays are in order for Robbie Robinson, down at the village hall and Catherine Baker, New Jersey, who celebrated her 91st birthday with her daughter, Helen McLean, at the Gale Street Inn in Mundelien.

Have you heard about the Antioch family that practically has their own baseball team?

Ring's Radiators softball team has six members of the Blaine Ring family playing on it.

Condolences to Dave Gutowski who broke his jaw when he was hit by a baseball. Must be hard to get that pizza through a straw.

Oops! Guess there were some gate crashers at the village employee's pool party last week.

I heard that there were more uninvited mosquitoes than guests.

The Moose picnic, held at Williams Park on Sunday, was enjoyed by all that attended despite the heat.

Robert Mathews was the big prize winner, taking home a crisp new $500 bill that was first prize.

And the Moose baseball team took the Woodstock team, 14 to zip.

Although, my boss, Bill Schroeder, tells me that there were some reports that a few Orchard St. merchants were hotter than the weather about the loss of business caused by the street repairs coming during the peak business season, Mayor Mike Haley's temper would have probably topped that on the thermometer when he reported that no one had registered any complaints with him.

Then he explained that the repairs had to be done now since a fall start would probably result in an unfinished job, caused by winter's inclement weather.

Moose women meet

The Women of the Moose College of Regents, chapter night program was called to order by Senior Regent Louise Gutowski for the first meeting of the Year.

The gavel was turned over to Chairman Col. Judy Page, who introduced the members of the Antioch Chapter College of Regents.

These are: Collegians June Ballenger, Alice Young, Dorothy Trowlewski, Norma Lowe, Harriet Grewe, Jerri Polson, Erna Toft and Gladys Schroeder.

THE COMMITTEE project was a grocery raffle, participated in by the W.O.T.M. and Loyal Order of the Moose, with the proceeds used to bring Col. Harriet Grewe back from Moosehaven for a visit with all her friends.

Harriet was introduced, presented with a corsage and a kiss, and she gave a short speech of thanks, cut short by a few tears.

GUIDES THEN escorted Col. Alice Young to the altar where Col. Judy Page presented her with a pin signifying her 25 years as a Woman of the Moose.

Col. Harriet Grewe acted as presentation officer, as Col. Norma Lowe was escorted to the altar where she renewed her pledge and had her red tassel changed to green by Investing Officer Col. Judy Page.

GUEST SENIOR Regent Col. Noreen Rosen then proceeded with the enrollment ceremony.

Welcomed into the Heart of the Women of the Moose were Marlene Nieman and Eileen Anderson, sponsored by Jeanne Hartmann.

THE GUIDES escorted the visiting collegians to the altar to be presented with a gift in appreciation for attending our meeting. These Collegians were from Cicero, Chicago Southwest, Wauconda, Chicago 129, Waukegan and Fox Lake Chapters.

Too late to be counted, but certainly welcomed by everyone was another surprise member.

DOROTHY KENNEDY flew in from California and, joined by Marge Gaa, visited with friends after the meeting.

The roll call was as follows: Collegians, 23; Star Recorders, 10; Friendship, 27; Past Regents, 2; Senior Regents, 2.

The next meeting is July 17.

They will receive a t-shirt just for entering.

"I am looking for full participation from my students and area players", stated Karla Herbst, tennis instructor.

GOP to serve spaghetti

"We're opening a restaurant", Lake County Republican Chairman, George Kangas, announced Friday.

Lake County Republican Candidates will be serving up spaghetti and meatball sandwiches together with coffee and soft drinks at a special Republican Restaurant to be located on the midway during the Lake County Fair, July 23-27.

Featured will be a special sauce prepared by Rick Scardino of the Brass Wheel in Round Lake. The facility will feature a fully enclosed tent and table seating.

"We think that people attending the Fair will welcome a chance at a great meal and a seat as a change of pace from other activities at the fair", said Judicial Candidate Jack Hoogasian and Coroner Candidate, Mickey Babcox, coordinators of the project.

Dinner will be priced at $3 for a generous serving. Meatball sandwiches, soft drinks and coffee are also on the menu.

The Restaurant idea was born in meetings of county-wide candidates desirous of making themselves available to county voters for information exchange on matters concerning them. Informality of atmosphere and conversation will be emphasized.

Fair attendees are invited to visit the Restaurant, relax with a plate of spaghetti and greet Republican candidates from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. throughout the duration of the fair.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: JULY 17, 1930

Despite the valiant efforts of Eugene Cox and Deputy Sheriff Hahn, they failed to catch the five armed bandits who last Saturday night helped themselves to $414.04 store of Eugene Cox of Channel Lake and a gold watch from the grocery and when in danger of being caught, cold-bloodedly proposed to end the present existence of their pursuers in a volley of shots.

Amateur flyers will test wings and nerve tonight. Glider Club members will witness a demonstration at the ball park on Channel Lake Road at 7 p.m. There is no doubt about it — the Antioch Glider Club is a reality, according to William E. Morley, acting secretary and treasurer, who stated that sufficient funds had been raised to put the club on a firm financial footing.

Every effort is being made to hurry the construction of the new $115,000 Grant Community High School at Fox Lake, so that it will be ready for occupancy by the time school opens in Sept., when it is expected that over 200 students will enroll. C.C. Claxton will be the principal assisted by eight other instructors.

Two minutes before noon today, the alarm was sent in to the fire department to quench the flames already leaping from the barn on the Antioch Hotel property. Because of the fact that the fire had such a start, and because there were old gasoline barrels in the barn which aggravated the flames, nothing except the Yellow Cab of Ira M. Simons was saved.

Bert Chinn has returned from Libertyville, and is back on the job, selling papers.

An old-time dance, sponsored by the Lake County Unit of the Pure Milk Association, will be held at the Antioch Palace, Thursday evening. Quadrilles, old and new dances, and other dance attractions will be made especially lively by Frank Cibula and his 10-piece band.

Two Antioch young people were represented in the annual exhibition of students' work at the American Academy of Art, Chicago, this spring. Directors of the school selected works by Stephen Pacini and Georgia Van Patten to be presented at this annual event.

Richard C. Edmundson of Springfield is Antioch Township High School's new principal.

Jimmie Crowley, one of the famous Four Horsemen of Notre Dame who has his summer home at Fox Lake, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Antioch Lions Club at the Fox Lake Country Club Monday evening.

Mrs. Fern Lux of this village will participate as a member of Miss Nellie McClaslin's radio dramatics class in the production of "The Tinker of Toledo," over station WEAU-FM on Thursday evening at 7:45.

Polio insurance is now available to farm bureau members. Mrs. Charles Alvers, Rte. 173 and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fields, of Ida Ave., have beautiful Yucca plants in full bloom at their homes. Normally raised in warmer and dryer climates, the Yucca plant is unusual to this community.

Chop Suey every Saturday night at Linder's - 75 cents. The Duck Hunters Association through its president, James MacMillen, has asked the U.S. Fish and Wildlife service to combine this area with Wisconsin to provide more suitable dates for duck hunting.

QUESTION: WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE COMPULSORY DRAFT REGISTRATION FOR 19 AND 20 YEAR OLDS?

Wayne Schultz, 19, "I think it's alright. The army is undermanned and we're not ready in case of any trouble."

Bob Silvola Jr., 20, "I don't care. I guess we should have it. We need an army to defend our country."

Mark Biel, 18, "I don't think they ever should have gotten rid of the registration. I don't like the idea of the draft though."

Allen Moore, 20, "I'm all for it. The services need men. I think they should draft kids right out of high school for two years."

Antioch youths attend picnic

Children from Antioch were among the youth afflicted with muscular dystrophy invited to a picnic held by Brunswick Corp. July 9.

More than 180 children attended the event, held at Brunswick headquarters in Skokie. During the picnic the children were entertained by jugglers, mimes, clowns, musicians and other performers.

Brunswick's special guests, Ernie "Mr. Cub" Banks and Keith Magnuson, head coach of the Chicago Blackhawks hockey team, were on hand to greet the children and adults who attended the event.

The picnic is an annual event held by Brunswick Corp. with the Greater Chicago Muscular Dystrophy Assn. The company has been a major contributor to the Muscular Dystrophy Assn. for a number of years. Brunswick Recreation Centers across the nation hold "Bowl-A-Thons" to help raise funds which are presented annually on the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Muscular Dystrophy Telethon. Brunswick has contributed almost $2 million for muscular dystrophy research and therapy since it began its involvement with the program.

Republican judicial candidates William Block and Jack Hoogasian, center, are the other members of the foursome.

Candidates to golf at Republican outing

Lake County Republican judicial candidates announced their full support and participation in the Republican Golf Outing, July 16 at Midlane Country Club.

In a joint statement released by Republican County Chairman George Kangas, the candidates said, "We're proud to represent the Republican Party in the general election in November and are making every effort to meet county voters to exchange views on our judicial system. The golf outing provides a great opportunity to meet people on an informal basis.

Jack Hoogasian, former Lake County state's attorney will face Democrat Robert Lessmann for the two-county seat vacated by Judge Lloyd A. VanDeusen. Likewise, William Block is running for the two-county seat vacated by Judge Thomas Doran against Democrat Kathryn Marshall.

Larry Inglis is running for the Lake County seat of Judge Fred Geiger who is retiring from the bench, and will face Democrat Charles Scott.

"We are confident of a great Republican year and are fortunate to have such well qualified judicial candidates", Kangas said. "I encourage Lake County voters to attend the golf outing, kick-off of our summer campaign activities to greet and talk with them and the other members of our outstanding ticket."

Tickets can be obtained from any Republican precinct committeeman, Republican candidates and officeholders, or at Republican headquarters at 623-0235 at a cost of $30 for golf and dinner or $17.50 for either golf or dinner.

Aladdin's magic comes to CLC

Though the program begins at noon, shortly thereafter the audience will be transported into night, Arabian style, as the story of "Aladdin" is recreated by Kathy Piper and her Piper Puppets.

Lake County children are issued a very special invitation to attend the free one-hour program held on Monday, July 21, in Building Five on the College of Lake County's Grayslake campus.

Adults are also welcome as the story of the pompous Sultan, the beautiful Princess, and the hero Aladdin appeals to grownups who enjoy stories of adventure and the exotic.

The whittler and welder behind the puppet production is Ms. Piper, who has created all types of puppets and has performed at schools, fairs, stores and on television throughout the upper Midwest. The characters in the production are portrayed by large marionettes, a minimum of three feet tall.

All the voices are live, and the lighting, scenery, and music enhance the theatrical effect.

For more information on the performance, contact CLC's Activities Office at 223-6601, Ext. 423.

PULLS STRINGS — Puppeteer Kathy Piper pulls the strings for a marionette's performance of "Aladdin." The visiting artist will appear at College of Lake County with her cast of puppets in a performance that is free and open to the public.

Fair promises five action-packed days

The 52nd Annual Lake County Fair will open Wednesday, July 23, and continue through Sunday, July 27. It will be filled with five days of action-packed activities for the "greatest family show of the summer."

A queen pageant has been added to this year's action, which will initiate the week, including rodeos, tractor pulls, and a disco contest.

The 1980 search for the Lake County fair queen takes on a new concept. Preliminary contests have been held or are still going on in many of the 48 municipalities throughout the county. These contests qualify girls as contestants in the Lake County fair queen contest.

Also on Wednesday's agenda is the popular heavy horse pull and the second annual super coupon prizes night.

Highlighting Thursday's action will be the antique and garden tractor pulls' and the disco "under the stars" dance contest, where young couples will be seeking the $300 first place honors.

Friday and Saturday are rodeo days at the Lake County Fair with three performances on the agenda instead of two. Besides the two evening performances there will be a Saturday afternoon matinee.

The annual livestock champion sale will be Saturday afternoon.

The always popular heavy tractor pull, along with the four-wheel drive trucks will be Sunday afternoon.

Closing out the five days of action will be the popular demolition derby Sunday, and there are horse shows every day of the fair.

There will be nearly 10,000 exhibits of all types on the fairgrounds as well as a midway filled with games and rides.

One can see all this for a single admission of $3 daily or $7.50 for a season pass.

Dance away the lazy, hazy days

Celebrate summer by swinging into a square dance Friday, July 18 at the Lake Shangri-La Community Center, Wisconsin.

Hosted by the TP Taws 'N' Paws, the summer swing will turn your lazy hazy crazy days of summer into spectacular fun.

Tempting refreshments and ice cold drinks will be served during the dance. Bring a square and take home a banner.

Club caller, Ted Palmen, will begin squares at 8 p.m. Round-ds workshop will be at 7:30 p.m.

A fish fry will be held downstairs beginning at 6:30 p.m. Not only a variety of fish, but steak and chicken will be cooked to preference.

For interested couples or singles who would like to learn to square dance, lessons will begin in September.

Call 414-857-2513 or 312-244-2116 for more information.

Letter To The Editor

Editor:

Today marks the half way point of my second season chauffeuring my three daughters to the Antioch Aqua Center and after all those hours of watching the morning activities I'm still very much impressed with all I see there.

Mornings begin with Antioch Swim Team practices from 8:30 to 10 under Coach Marty Berry and Assistant Coach Doug Kozenski with up to 90 swimmers working hard, learning and getting ready for the next meet. Though they don't always come out winners in competitions, these young people are what Coach Berry aims for "A recreational swim team; getting good, healthy exercise, learning to compete, making friends and being part of a team."

Marilyn Spietz coaches the swim team divers and teaches water ballet classes early in the afternoon. The girls in water ballet learn different maneuvers with unusual names like oyster, kip and planking which when put together with synchronized swimming strokes, Marilyn's choreography and music really become water ballet in the water.

In their "free time" (usually weekend mornings) Marilyn and a group of a dozen young men and women employed by the village create what they call "swimnastics", a kind of mixed doubles gymnastics in the pool.

From 10 to 12:45 weekday mornings swimming lessons are offered. Winnie Sorenson and her crew of able assistants work with a diverse group of youngsters, from three year olds who really don't want to get wet to 11 and 12 year olds in "swimmers" who are mastering the intricacies of breast stroking the pool's length.

Winnie Sorenson is a lady who's often taken for granted as the one in charge of swimming lessons and a lot of people don't realize all that's involved. She sets up the classes, handles sign ups, supervises every teacher and every class, helps the little swimmer who won't stop crying and encourages all the children. In addition she handles the bookkeeping and all the necessary paperwork for the Red Cross Water Safety cards.

When Walt Shepard, superintendent of Public Works, was installing the new diving board he decided that Winnie should get the first dive in honor of the 24 years she's been with the pool. Walt said that when the pool first opened in 1956 he was a lifeguard and Winnie was in the first lifesaving class they offered. Right after completing the class she joined the staff as a guard. From 1957 to 1966 she was a lifeguard and taught swimming classes. For the past 14 years she's been in charge of lessons and does a terrific job. Walt Shepard says "Winnie is the most honest person around, she once was off $1 on her books and insisted on taking it out of her own purse."

No one has kept track of how many children have taken lessons at the pool but Winnie told me she knows she's already teaching the second generation.

The Village of Antioch has good reason to be proud of the Aqua Center and its super staff directed by Genda Tomaschik, Parks and Recreation director; Dee Lang, program coordinator and Dave Volling, pool manager.

At the next Family Night at Williams Park, Monday, July 28, there will be demonstrations at the pool of diving, swim team, lessons, "swimnastics" and water ballet performances.

Woman behind the Antioch man

Louise Santino is involved and organized

by GLORIA DAVIS

Louise Santino is a busy gal, whose many involvements in husband, home and community, have necessitated her being one of the most organized gals around.

But don't let the word organized misleadingly give you the impression of blandness or dullness, because this is a happy, exuberant and vital lady.

LOUISE IS the wife of Tom Santino, the developer of one of the newest and nicest parts of Antioch, Harbor Ridge and Harbor Ridge Estates.

She calls herself a displaced person since she was born and educated in Arkansas, spent a large part of her life in and around Chicago, moving to Antioch 10 years ago, with her husband and son by a previous marriage, James Privett, who is now 23 years old.

She was a beautician, operating her own business in Chicago, the day she met Tom while they were both making bank deposits.

"BUT THIS wasn't one of those hello today, get married tomorrow things," Louise laughs, explaining that it was over two years before the wedding bells rang.

What's it like being married to a successful land developer?

Louise thinks it's great, especially when she gets to give some input into the business with a little decorating and architectural design advice.

After seeing the great job she did on their spacious home overlooking Lake Louise with their own private man-made lake, there is little doubt of the quality of this input.

Louise is presently the president of the Antioch Women's Club, having also served as its vice president.

ALTHOUGH the membership takes the summer off, the club's directors still operate on a schedule that contributes to the support of their pet projects, the veterans at Downey Hospital and the clients at Winchester House in Libertyville.

She's an avid golfer, belonging to the State Bank of Antioch's Women's League and the Harbor Ridge League along with her husband.

BRIDGE IS another of her favorites, along with reading just about everything that's in worthwhile print, non-fiction and biographies, topping the list.

Having done all the landscaping around their brick ranch home, gardening is also one of her forties, since she loves and has a definite talent for raising flowers and vegetables alike.

And with a name like Santino, could she be anything but an excellent Italian cook, veal parmesan being her specialty.

All this and she sews too, making a lot of her own clothes to boot.

SHE DEFINES the importance of her volunteer work by saying, "I think that anyone who is interested in a better world has to start with themselves, working for their community, to better their country because eventually this reaches around the entire world."

LOUISE SANTINO

A little extra trouble can be too much!

by GLORIA DAVIS

I know that I'll never make the finals of the Mrs. Homemaker contest but, believe it or not, there have been a few times that I took the extra trouble to do things the good old-fashioned way.

There was the time that I decided to give the family laundry the good old-fashioned fresh air and sunshine treatment.

AFTER LISTENING to some of my friends extol the merits of hanging clothes outside, instead of drying them the synthetic dryer way, I decided to try it, even though my family probably wouldn't "Notice the difference."

Picturing my mother's much used wooden clip filled bag, I went antique hunting for some new clothespins.

Finding a Ming vase from the sixth dynasty would have been easier, but I finally found some on a dusty shelf at the back of the hardware store.

After what seemed like hours of finger numbing labor, I proudly surveyed the rows of clothes waving in the breeze.

AS I WALKED towards the house the sky opened up and rewashed my laundry and it continued with operation "wet-wash" for two days.

On the third day, Old Sol came out with his whitening brightening rays and finally dried my family's apparel.

I'LL NEVER forget the feeling of accomplishment as I bent the towels in half for storage in the linen closet.

Maybe it was worth it because my family did notice the difference, especially when sandpapering their bodies dry with those line dried towels.

And my husband detected the change when he found his socks standing neatly in the closet instead of folded in the drawer.

THEY THANKED me profusely, but said that once was enough and begged me to return to the lazy daisy dryer days.

Then there was the time I decided to treat them to a real home-baked cake made from scratch.

AFTER COMBING the gourmet dictionary to refresh my memory on the meaning of such words as cream, cut-in, and fold, I searched through my cupboards until I found my old sifter.

You know what? It only took a few minutes before I was operating the sifter as any professional baker.

I guess, like riding a bike, there are some things you just don't forget how to do.

Two hours and a sinkful of bowls and pans later, I slid two batter filled pans into a preheated oven.

IT TOOK only 45 minutes of baking, 15 minutes of cooling and 10 minutes to crown this very successful effort with frosting, and a whole 10 minutes for my family to devour it.

That's when I reverted back to the so-so bakery bought cakes that take two minutes to buy and my family a longer two or three hours to polish off.

Don't get me wrong, I'm not knocking those who stick to the old-fashioned way, let's just say I like things quick and easy, at least most things.

Williams is top "needler"

Susan Williams, 18, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Stephen Williams of Antioch, has won a Kodak camera from Eastman and is a runner-up in a contest.

Last spring Susan entered the Butterick, Eastman and Seventeen Magazine's "Sew Biz" contest.

She chose two Butterick patterns and polyester material, as required, from Erickson's Sewing Center where she works.

HER MOTHER SERVED as her sponsor for the sewing project. The blouse and skirt were mailed to New York City for judging.

In May Susan was notified that her outfit was chosen to be one of the top 60 entries in the country. Now Susan has learned that she is one of the top fourteen finalists in this northern region of the U.S.A.

Views On Dental Health

By

ROBERT J. PAULETTI, D.D.S.

BADMOUTH OR SWEETMOUTH

I know it's not a pleasant subject, but halitosis is a fact of human life. It is not a disease, but a sign that something is happening in your mouth. It might be as simple as the natural action of saliva on bits of food or as serious as tooth decay, gum disease or even the symptom of a more serious disease.

Bits of food left in the mouth, is by far, the most common cause. Food debris gets caught in any number of places in the mouth, mixed with bacteria and the product is "bad breath". Onions, garlic, alcohol and tobacco, by their nature, can also cause foul breath. Cavities (which are food traps for bacteria), tartar buildup, and poorly-fitting dentures are also common causes of halitosis.

What can you do about halitosis? It's a simple two-pronged approach: dental appointments on a regular basis and regular home care for your teeth. The dentist will fill the cavities, remove the tartar, and make sure the bridges and dentures fit. A proper brushing and flossing regimen is the key to your personal dental hygiene. Between brushings, rinse your mouth to dislodge food particles. Be a sweetmouth!

With the recent storms we were wondering if our fold-down camper would be insured if damaged by hail?

Yes, as long as the trailer was on your property and not attached to a vehicle. However, the Homeowner's policy will provide only limited coverage against hail damage. Ask your agent about a separate Physical Damage policy to insure the camper. This policy will provide more extensive coverage and has the added benefit of insuring it anywhere. The policy will include comprehensive and collision coverage.

McMANUS-LEMKE

THIS IS A PRACTICE PEAK ALERT. FOR THE REAL THING, LISTEN TO YOUR RADIO.

If today were a real Peak Alert, we'd be on the radio asking you to conserve as much electricity as you could between 9 a.m. and 10 p.m., when the use of air-conditioning is greatest.

To keep your home at 78 degrees, no lower. (The colder you make it, the more electricity your air conditioner has to use.)

To postpone washing, drying or ironing clothes during the day.

To cook outdoors if you possibly can.

To vacuum early or not at all.

To read a book instead of watching a lot of TV.

To run your dishwasher after you go to bed.

To take a shower instead of a bath. (A bath uses more hot water and makes your electric water heater work overtime.)

Anything you can add to the list would be greatly appreciated.

Now, the world isn't going to come to an end if you don't conserve. Your electric bill is just going to go up.

For instance. Say we have three or four scorches back to back and everybody turns the air-conditioning on full blast.

When you add that to the normal daily demand for electricity, it's easy to run short. Unless we start every backup power plant that's available, regardless of how small or how old.

Worse yet, some of them use awfully expensive fuels, like oil. Which means the cost of producing each extra kilowatt-hour of electricity goes up to almost 12 cents, 16 times more than our nuclear generators can do it for. And extra fuel costs get passed along to you in the fuel adjustment charge on your electric bill.

Besides, if everybody can just cut down a little on Peak Alert days, we won't have to build as many plants in the years ahead.

So in peak demand periods, we'll go on the radio to warn everybody that we're having a Peak Alert and it's time to conserve every way they can.

It pays. If we all conserve, we all save.

In case you need practice, make a dry run today.

Roberta Carter attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Myra Barnett and Laura Carter, the bride's sister. Flower girl was Edith Madura.

Gary Zwicke served the groom as best man. Groomsman in attendance were Myrl Barnett and William Pociucha, the bride's cousin. Ushers were Ernest January and Larry Stried.

Brian Witkiewicz as ring bearer carried a pillow made and designed by the bride's sister.

The reception was held at Willow Pond Country Club in Libertyville. Guests came from Tennessee, Arkansas, California, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Alabama, Connecticut, Mississippi and Wisconsin to attend the wedding. The date was also the celebration of the bride's mother's birthday.

Class set

The Antioch Parks and Recreation's Dawn Flaschner and Nancy Harland are holding another cooking class.

This one begins July 28 and finishes August 1 from 10 a.m. until noon.

Anyone wishing to sign-up can come to the Parks and Recreation office at 874 Main St. They need eight children before they can schedule a class.

It costs $20 and includes all supplies. The final day there is a meal for the children and one of their parents.

This class is always a success with the children. They learn to cook simple desserts and sandwiches as well as learning how to follow recipes and kitchen safety.

They do everything themselves and have a sense of accomplishment at the end of the class. If there are any questions call 395-2160.

Pet Parade

August 2 will be the first Annual Antioch Pet Parade and all kinds of pets are welcome.

Everyone entering must be accompanied by a parent.

Registration will begin at noon and there will be prizes and awards to be given in various categories. Bring your pet and meet at the Scout House.
